Article 2

Storage Agreement

2.1 A Storage Agreement is entered into in writing. A random place in the parking facility is made available to the subscriber.

2.2 Unless otherwise agreed, the Storage Agreement is deemed to have been entered into up to and including the next calendar month after the commencement date of the contract, after which it will be tacitly extended by 1 (one) calendar month each time.

2.3 Both parties are, unless otherwise agreed, entitled to cancel the Storage Agreement in writing with due observance of a notice period of 1 (one) calendar month before the expiry of the subscription period. Cancellation is only possible with the Parking Facility Manager.

2.4 When entering into the Storage Agreement, the Manager will provide the Contract Holder with Access Documents to enable him to use the relevant Parking Facility. The Access Documents remain the property of the Owner. In the event of the loss of the Access Documents or one of these Access Documents, the subscriber is obliged to report this to the Parking Manager. For the provision of new Access Documents by the Parking Manager, the Subscription Holder owes a fee equal to the deposit, unless the Contract Holder demonstrates that the access documents become inaccessible according to the standards of reasonableness and fairness should be considered to fall under the risk sphere of the Owner.

2.5 On the last day of the Storage Agreement at the latest, all Access Documents provided by the Manager to the Contract Holder must be submitted. If A Subscription Holder does not meet the aforementioned obligation, he will owe a fine of € 25.00 for each day that he fails to hand over the Access Documents to the Manager. The foregoing does not apply if the Contract Holder has notified Management of the loss or the entry of Access Documents in writing. In that case, the Subscription Holder will owe a fee as described in the previous paragraph.

2.6 If the Contract Holder has left a Motor Vehicle in the Parking Facility after termination or dissolution of the Storage Agreement, the Manager will request the Contract Holder in writing to remove the abandoned motor vehicle. If subscriber fails to do so, Manager may choose to take the left motor vehicle from the parking facility. The Manager will inform the (former) Subscription Holder of this in writing. The costs of disposal or temporary storage of the vehicle, as well as of a possible status report will be borne by the (former) Subscription Holder. In the case, the address of the (former) Subscription Holder despite reasonable effort can be retrieved to suffice with arranging a clearly visible request to removal under a windshield wiper of the motor vehicle. If the (former) Subscription Holder has not collected the Motor Vehicle within six months after the last written notice, the Owner will sell or destroy it. Owner is only required to compensate the (former) Subscription Holder the sales revenue reduced with the cost of the owner associated with the removal and temporary storage, and any status report of the motor vehicle. If the latter costs are higher than the revenue from the Motor Vehicle, (former) Subscription Holder must pay all these costs to the Owner.

Article 3
